in MilConnect

- Go to <http://Milconnect.dmdc.mil>

- Then click on "Sign In" button located on the top right hand side of the page

The screenshot shows the milConnect website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the milConnect logo and the text "Powered by DMDC". To the right of the logo, there are links for "Welcome", "About milConnect", "Contact Support", "FAQ", and "Help". Below the navigation bar, there are tabs for "Welcome", "News", and "FAQ". The main content area is divided into several sections:

- DoD Associates and Beneficiaries: A section titled "Manage Your Personal Data and Benefits" with a sub-header "Sign In to update personal information, like your entry in the DoD's Global Address List (GAL), or to check health care coverage, transfer education benefits, and retrieve correspondence. Sign Up to create DS Logon credentials accepted by milConnect as well as eBenefits, RAPIDS, TRICARE, and other DoD sites. Explore the milConnect FAQ for fast, accurate answers to your benefits questions, at your convenience 24/7."
- Breaking News: A list of news items with dates and titles, such as "April 18, 2016: Incapacitation Redetermination process integrated in milConnect".
- Did you receive correspondence about...?: A list of topics related to correspondence, such as "Incapacitation Redetermination Deadline".
- Sign In: A section with a "Sign In" button and text explaining that users with a Common Access Card (CAC) or DFAS (myPay) Account can sign in.
- Sign Up: A section with a "Sign Up Now" button and text explaining that sponsors can create a DS Logon by clicking the button below.
- Quick Links: A list of links for "Transfer Education Benefits (TEB)", "Update Address", and "Update Global Address List (GAL)".
- Military Crisis Line: A logo for the Military Crisis Line with the phone number 1-800-273-8255 and the text "PRESS 1".
- Safe Helpline: A logo for the Safe Helpline with the text "Sexual Assault Support for the DoD Community".

At the bottom of the page, there is a row of five images with captions: "Life Events that Impact Your Benefits", "Military Transitions", "Education Benefits", "DEERS", and "ID Cards".

- Then Click "OK" button

Self-Service Consent to Monitor

You are accessing a U.S. Government (USG) Information System (IS) that is provided for USG beneficiary self-service-authorized use only.

By using this IS (which includes any device attached to this IS), you consent to the following conditions:

- The USG routinely intercepts and monitors communications on this IS for purposes including, but not limited to, penetration testing, COMSEC monitoring, network operations and defense, personnel misconduct (PM), law enforcement (LE), and counterintelligence (CI) investigations.
- At any time, the USG may inspect and seize data stored on this IS.
- While all personal identifying information (PII) data stored on this IS is protected under the Privacy Act of 1974, all communications using this IS, and the data captured to support this IS, are not private, are subject to monitoring, interception, and search, and may be disclosed or used for any USG authorized purpose.
- This IS includes security measures (e.g., authentication and access controls) to protect USG interests--not for your personal benefit or privacy.
- Notwithstanding the above, using this IS does not constitute consent to PM, LE or CI investigative searching or monitoring of the content of privileged communications, or work product, related to personal representation services by attorneys, psychotherapists, or clergy, and their assistants. Such communications and work product are private and confidential. See User Agreement for details.

Read the Privacy Act statement and acknowledge you understand how your data may be used and your responsibility for providing accurate data that may affect DoD benefits and entitlements.

Privacy Act
coverage, DoD Identification Cards, access to DoD installations, buildings or facilities, and access to DoD computer systems and networks.

ROUTINE USE(S):
To Federal and State agencies and private entities; individual providers of care, and others, on matters relating to claim adjudication, program abuse, utilization review; professional quality assurance; medical peer review, program integrity, third party liability, coordination of benefits and civil and criminal litigation, and access to Federal government and contractor facilities, computer systems, networks, and controlled areas. The DD Form 1172-2 currently covers the RUs that would include retirees and dependents. To the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the Social Security Administration, and to other Federal, state, and local government agencies to identify individuals having benefit eligibility in another plan or program. For a complete list of DEERS routine uses, visit:
<http://dpdd.defense.gov/Privacy/SORNIndex/DODwideSORNArticleView/tabid/6797/Article/627618/dmdc-02.dod.aspx>

Applicant information is subject to computer matching within the Department of Defense or with other Federal or non-Federal agencies. Matching programs are conducted to assure that an individual eligible under a Federal program is not improperly receiving duplicate benefits from another program. A beneficiary or former beneficiary who has applied for privileges of a Federal Benefit Program and has received concurrent assistance under another plan will be subject to adjustment or recovery of any improper payments made or delinquent debts owed.

DISCLOSURE:
Voluntary; however, failure to provide information may result in denial of a Uniformed Services Identification Card and/or non-enrollment in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System, refusal to grant access to DoD installations, buildings, facilities, computer systems and networks.
